Important Information:

for you loans. You must complete Exit Counseling immediately online at www.studentloans.gov and inform the financial aid office of completion in writing.

You must be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) credits that apply to the program of study you are pursuing at North Seattle College. If you drop below six (6) eligible credits at any time, you will no longer be eligible

You must meet North Seattle's satisfactory academic progress requirements to qualify and remain eligible for loan funds. Please review the North Seattle's satisfactory progress requirements online at <https://northseattle.edu/financial-aid/satisfactory-progress>

If you are a first time student, or have requested a one quarter loan, due to federal requirements some or all of your funds will be held a minimum of 30 days. Plan to pay your tuition if you do not have enough grant aid to cover your tuition and fees.

Carefully determine how much you need to borrow. Only one (1) loan change request per quarter will be reviewed. Loan Change forms will only be accepted the 5th week of the quarter in fall, winter and spring. No changes allowed are allowed during summer.

We will always award Subsidized loan funds before awarding Unsubsidized loan funds. However some students may not be eligible to borrow Subsidized loans. Loan amounts are based on eligibility.

The Department of Education, in accordance with the Truth in Lending Act, mandates that colleges are only allowed to certify loans up to "The Cost of Attendance/Cost of Education" as determined each year by the Washington Financial Aid Association. All financial aid awards, including loans, affect a student's budget.
