		Physical Activity	LIB	DICE	Veterans
		Barre Sampler  WC 0827D  Led by Kristin Church                      Fusing the best of ballet, strength, yoga and Pilates with challenging, low impact resistance moves that build total body strength. This class will strengthen, tone, and define muscle from head to toe, all with little to no impact on joints. No dance experience is required for this class. Class is generally done barefoot. If you plan on bringing shoes, bring lightweight and flexible ones. Dress for easy movement and bring a water bottle and yoga mat or beach towel.	“So You Want to Talk About Race”  Book Read  LB 2236  (Library Conference Room)                      (open to all)                      Copies available on reserve in the NSC Library.                      "In So You Want to Talk About Race, Editor at Large of The Establishment Ijeoma Oluo offers a contemporary, accessible take on the racial landscape in America, addressing head-on such issues as privilege, police brutality, intersectionality, micro-aggressions, the Black Lives Matter movement, and the "N" word. Perfectly positioned to bridge the gap between people of color and white Americans struggling with race complexities, Oluo answers the questions readers don't dare ask, and explains the concepts that continue to elude everyday Americans."                      --- Goodreads	DICE All-Campus Meeting  Boardroom  Today's focus:                      1: reflecting on the outcomes of Fall's DICE Week                      2: EDI updates                      3: planning for NCORE (National Conference on Race &amp; Ethnicity in Higher Ed) held in Portland, OR this June                      4: upcoming DICE work sessions/Winter DICE Week.
